Purpose

We are Cumbria County Council's Adoption Service, and we are responsible for a range of statutory and discretionary services, including the following:

- Theraplay, including the use of MIM (Marschak Interactional Method) Assessments

Data Collection

Your data will be collected in the following ways:

- electronic forms (using Egress)
- home visits and video calls (Teams)
- video recording

Video recordings will be made by a Practitioner using an appropriate council device.

The session will be recorded and used by the Practitioner and their supervisor to enable reflection, provide feedback and make recommendations to the family.

Please be aware that if an enquiry or complaint is received relating to the Video Recording it may be necessary to share it with other professionals, internal services or other public organisations.

Practitioners will make all reasonable efforts to contact any individuals whose rights or privacy may be affected by the processing described above. In the event that a young person becomes upset or discloses sensitive information during a Video Recording, the Practitioner would be required to follow relevant Safeguarding Procedures.

Data Types

Adoption Support - Theraplay is required to process either your personal, special category/sensitive or criminal/law enforcement data to meet legal obligations and make robust recommendations and decisions.

The Personal Data requirements are:

- Name
- Contact Details

The Special Category Data requirements are:

- Health/Social Care i.e., child's early life history of developmental trauma and loss, adopter details

The Criminal/Law Enforcement Data requirements are:

- Not Applicable

Legal Basis for Processing Data

Where the Adoption Service identifies the requirement to process personal, special category/sensitive or criminal/law enforcement data, depending on the specific data being shared, it must have at least one of the following:

- for personal data, a legal basis under UKGDPR Article 6,
- for special category/sensitive data, a condition under UKGDPR Article 9

- for criminal/law enforcement data, a purpose under UKGDPR Schedule 8

The following legal bases apply to the processing of your personal data:

- UKGDPR Article 6(1) (a) Consent

Where the LGR Programme is relying on UKGDPR Article 6(1)(c) all Relevant Legislation should be listed below.

The following conditions apply to the processing of your special category/sensitive data:

- UKGDPR Article 9(2) (a) Explicit consent

The following purposes apply to the processing of your criminal/law enforcement data:

- Not Applicable

Automated Decision-Making/Profiling

Automated individual decision-making is a decision made by automated means without any human involvement. Automated individual decision-making does not have to involve profiling, although in some cases it might.

A definition of Profiling can be found in: UK GDPR - Article 4\(4\) and further information can be found at: ICO - Automated Decision Making and Profiling

We do not use your information for automated decision-making or profiling purposes.

Data Transfers

Your personal data is not transferred to a third country or international organisation.

Redaction

We operate a policy where we routinely redact the following details before making forms and documents available online:

- contact details e.g. telephone numbers, email addresses
- signatures
- personal or special category data
- information agreed to be confidential or commercially sensitive

Occasionally it may be considered necessary, justified and lawful to disclose data that appears in the list above. In these circumstances the council will make all reasonable efforts to contact you if this processing is going to have an impact on your rights or privacy.

Data Sharing

To achieve the purpose laid out above, the specific data will only be shared within the Adoption Service and Family Futures.

While responding to your enquiries or complaints it may be necessary to share your personal data with other parts of the council or other public bodies or organisations. All reasonable efforts will be made to contact you if this processing is going to have an impact on your rights or privacy.

Data Security and Retention

The video recording will be kept on a secure council system and can only be accessed by employees who have explicit permission to do so for as long as you are receiving family therapy.

Video recordings can only be retained beyond this point for training purposes if you have provided explicit consent by signing the Video Recording - Consent Form (below).

Please note: Privacy Notices cannot be finalised and published without identifying the correct retention period.

Your Rights - Data Subject Access

The UKGDPR provides you with the right to access information the council, as a public authority holds about you. Upon receipt of a valid request the council will:

- provide you with a response within one month
- let you know if your request is subject to an extension
- make reasonable efforts to comply with the format of your request
- inform you if your request is going to be refused or a charge is payable.

You can make a Data Subject Access Request (DSAR) by contacting:

Email: information.governance@cumbria.gov.uk
 Post: Cumbria County Council, Information Governance Team
 Parkhouse, Baron Way, Carlisle CA6 4SJ
 Telephone: (01228) 221234
 Online: Contact Form

Your Rights - Other

In addition to your right of access the UKGDPR also gives you the following rights:

- the right to be informed via the council's Privacy Notice
- the right to withdraw your consent. If we are relying on your consent to process your data then you can remove this at any point
- the right of rectification, we must correct inaccurate or incomplete data within one month
- the right to erasure. You have the right to have your personal data erased and to prevent processing unless we have a legal obligation to process your personal information
- the right to restrict processing. You have the right to suppress processing. We can retain just enough information about you to ensure that the restriction is respected in future
- the right to data portability. We can provide you with your personal data in a structured, commonly used, machine readable form when asked
- the right to object. You can object to your personal data being used for profiling, direct marketing or research purposes
- you have rights in relation to automated decision making and profiling, to reduce the risk that a potentially damaging decision is taken without human intervention.

Where our processing of your personal data is based on your consent, you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time. If you do decide to withdraw your consent we will stop processing your personal data for that purpose, unless there is another lawful basis we can rely on – in which case, we will let you know. Your withdrawal of your consent won't impact any of our processing up to that point.

Where our processing of your personal data is necessary for our legitimate interests, you can object to this processing at any time. If you do this, we will need to show either a compelling reason why our processing should continue, which overrides your interests, rights and freedoms or that the processing is necessary for us to establish, exercise or defend a legal claim.

Unless otherwise stated above you can exercise any of these rights by contacting:

Email: dataprotection@cumbria.gov.uk
 Post: Cumbria County Council, Legal and Democratic Services, 1st Floor, Cumbria House, 117 Botchergate, Carlisle, Cumbria CA1 1RD
 Online: Contact Form

Verifying Your Identity

When exercising the rights mentioned above please be aware that under UKGDPR Article 12(6) additional information can be requested to verify that you are the data subject if your identity is unconfirmed. Please note that:

- additional documentation is only required when the council cannot verify your identity using internal council systems that relate to the service you are requesting information about
- the council will contact you for this documentation prior to processing your request
- the statutory deadline for responding to your request will start when you have provided the additional documentation

- failure to provide additional documentation may lead to the council rejecting your request.

Complaints

If you have any concerns about the information contained in this Privacy Notice please contact: adoptionsupportteam@cumbria.gov.uk.

If you have concerns about the way the council has processed your data, please contact the council's Data Protection Officer via:

Email: dataprotection@cumbria.gov.uk

Post: Cumbria County Council, Legal and Democratic Services, 1st Floor, Cumbria House, 117 Botchergate, Carlisle, Cumbria CA1 1RD

Online: Contact Form

If you are not satisfied with our response or believe we are not processing your personal data in accordance with the law you can complain to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO): <https://ico.org.uk/make-a-complaint/your-personal-information-concerns/>

Reviews and Updates

In accordance with UK GDPR Article 13(3) where either, the extent of the data being collected or the purpose for collecting it changes this notice should be updated and republished, to ensure that data subjects are properly informed
